Former Nicaraguan Dictator Held in New York for Death of Two of His Countrymen.

HAD AMERICANS SHOT

Secret Service Men Guard Even Roof to Prevent Escape; Found Asleep in Bed.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Jose Santos Zelaya, former dictator of Nicaragua, was arrested at 11:30 o'clock last night on a charge of murder. The formal accusation is that he caused two of his countrymen to be put to death 12 years ago, although he also is charged with ordering the execution of Leroy Cannon and Leonard Groce, who were aiding the revolutionists.

Notwithstanding the holiday, United States Commissioner Shields today continued to expedite the case of Zelaya, and it was expected he would be brought before the commission this afternoon for a hearing. Zelaya's lawyers contend he was not responsible for the murders, which were the outgrowth of a political struggle.

Zelaya was held today without bail for examination on Dec. 1. Pending the arrival of a request for extradition to Nicaragua, he was remanded to prison.

Since Zelaya came to New York several weeks ago and registered at the Hotel Victoria, he has been shadowed by secret service agents. He moved from the Victoria to the Waldorf-Astoria and from there to the Hotel Harrgrave.

Word came to the former dictator last Saturday that the Government of Nicaragua was seeking his arrest on the murder charge and that the warrant was then on its way to Washington. The Hotel Harrgrave at the time was watched by secret service agents, but in some mysterious way Zelaya got out. It is reported that he was taken out, locked in a trunk.

Not until Sunday after daylight did the agents discover that the wily Nicaraguan had given them the slip. Then men were detailed to follow Zelaya's friends, believing that they in time would lead him to the fugitive.

These friends, including a number of who stood high in Nicaragua when Zelaya was in power, have arrived in New York since he came here and before his disappearance from the Harrgrave were known to be in secret conference with him daily. They suspected that he was planning to flee the city, and they were watching him and went on long, aimless journeys, but always came to Riverside Drive slipped quietly through the second-story window and disappeared in the Harrgrave.

Chief Office of the Secret Service found they went to the sixth floor to the apartments of Washington S. Valentine. Valentine was known to officials as a multi-millionaire who has large interests in Central America, especially in Honduras. Further inquiry showed Office that Valentine and Zelaya are warm friends.

Office located Zelaya was in Valentine's apartments and after getting a list of names of police and detective placed them on as to make the escape of Zelaya impossible.

Hotel Employees Retained.

The key at the telephone switchboard was seized, a detective took charge of the elevator and men were placed on the roof, on the front and rear fire escape in the rear courtyard and at the street door.

Then Office with Detective Quinn went to Valentine's apartments, rang the bell and the door was opened by Valentine.

"What do you want with me?" he asked, with a show of surprise.

"We have a warrant for the arrest of Zelaya," Office answered, "and we know he is in this house."

"You cannot," Zelaya said, "and I am a secret service man. I have a secret service man with me."

Then Newman and a secret service man rushed the way into the millionaire's apartments. Near the door was a rug on which Zelaya was sitting. The man did not learn, this gave a stifled scream but soon was quieted.

Newman rushed hurriedly to another room and asleep in a bed was a man he recognized as Zelaya. Newman shook the former dictator, who sat up in bed and asked:

"What do you want with me?"

"You are under arrest," replied Newman. "We have a warrant charging you with murder."

Zelaya got out of bed and began to dress slowly, but was told to make haste.

"Can't I excuse myself for a few minutes?" asked the prisoner.

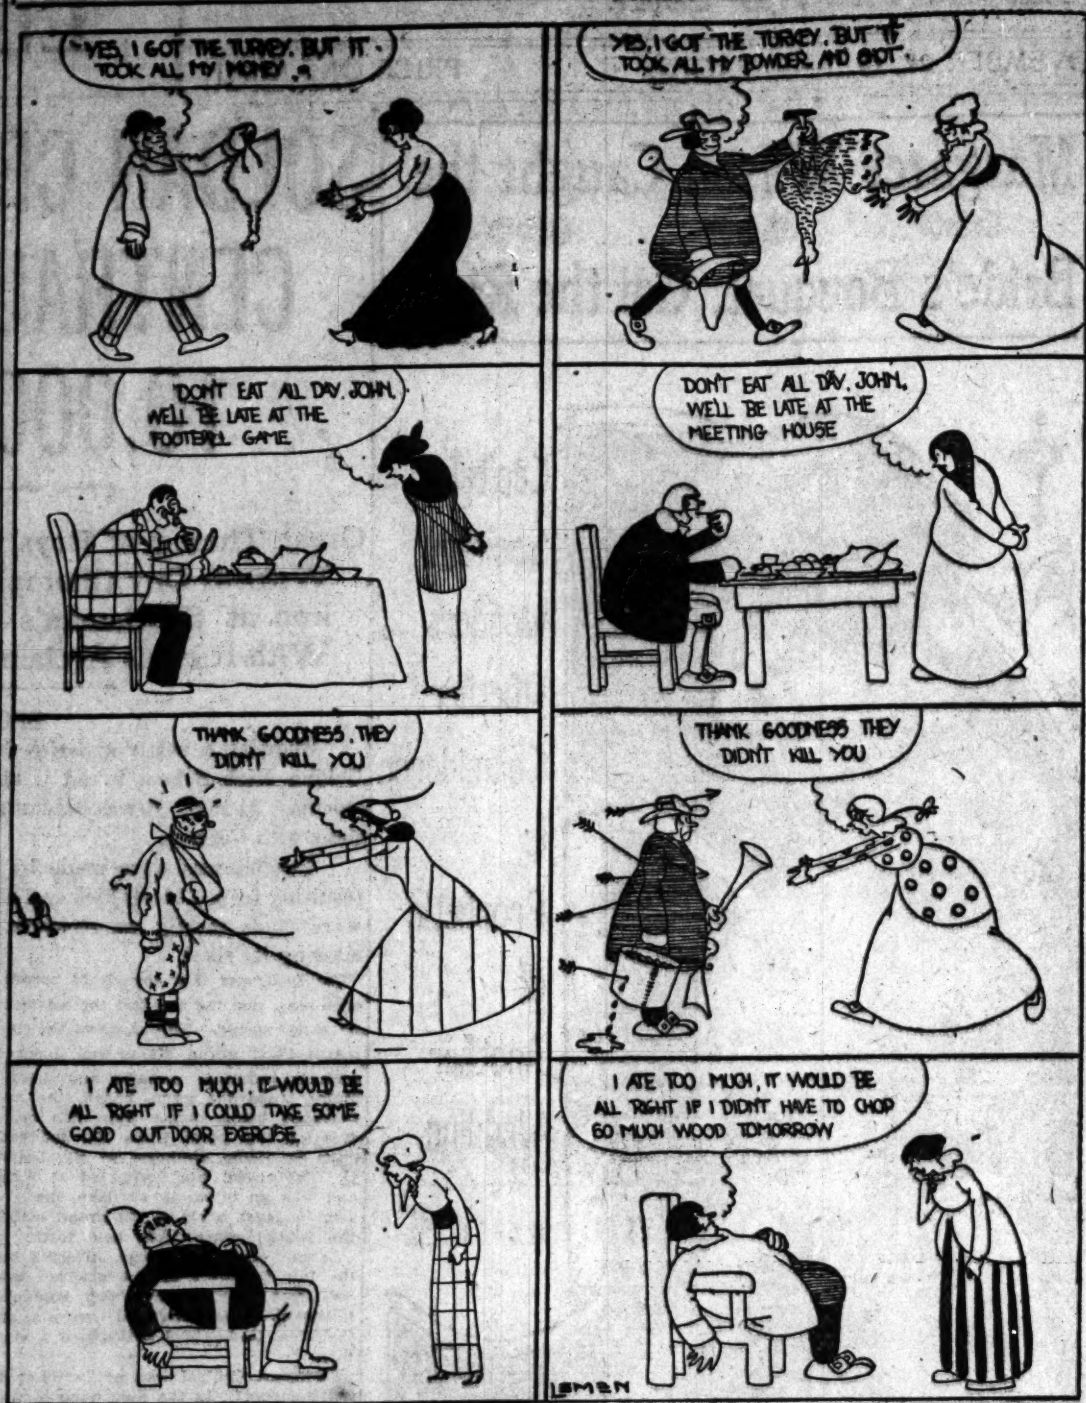

"You cannot," announced Office, who knew the ability of Zelaya to make mysterious escapes. "You are very well off where you are. Now, hurry up and dress."

Valentine wanted to call his automobile to take Zelaya to the station, but this was refused.

The telephone was ringing constantly and a secret service man who speaks Spanish answered it. A voice in Spanish spoke at the further end of the wire and the agent answered in Spanish. When the person at the other end gave a cry of alarm and hung up the receiver. The agent did not make out what was said.

Valentine telephoned for Louis F. Curran, who was Zelaya's Minister to Washington when the dictator was in power, then the person at the other end gave a cry of alarm and hung up the receiver. The agent did not make out what was said.

No Effort to Punish Zelaya for Murder of Americans.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—The official documents asking for the extradition of former President Zelaya, for the murder of two countrymen in Nicaragua, had not been received at the State Department today and what was to have been a hearing became merely a conference between Solicitor Folk and C. M. Stadden, the former dictator's attorney. Meanwhile Zelaya was held in New York.

Zelaya's extradition is asked on charges of the murder of Domingo Toribio and Sixto Pineta at Masaya, April 21, 1921. No mention of his summary execution is specifically asked for that purpose. Furthermore, under the terms of the treaty, should he be acquitted of the murder of Toribio and Pineta, he would have a month in which to leave Nicaragua un molested; should he serve a sentence he would have a month to serve in prison.

until Swingley intercepted a long pass from Rowan and ran to Central's 15-yard line. Central's defense crumbled at this stage and with Chalfont and Swingley alternating in plunges off tackle, another touchdown was scored. Chalfont going over. Kicking kicked goal. Score, Soldan 21, Central 0.

With only a few minutes to play, Central lined up for the kick-off, a beaten team. Time was called shortly after Merrettter, who replaced Woelgedy in the fourth quarter had kicked. Final score: Soldan, 21; Central, 0.

MANUAL WINS FROM SMITH TEAM, 28-14

Manual Training School defeated Smith Academy at Francis Field Thursday morning, 28-14. About 2000 fans turned out for the game, a larger crowd being prevented because of the rival Soldan-Central game.

The teams were evenly matched as to weight. Although the field was a bit soggy, it afforded neither team an advantage.

Smith kicked off to Manual's 20-yard line and after the ball signified for five minutes Baum went over of Manual's first touchdown. After that the quarter was evenly played in the next period, both teams played ferociously and the ball was kept pretty well to the middle of the field.

In the next period Smith started with a vengeance. Gathering the ball from Manual's kick-off, Van Ralte made consistent gains, but Manual held for downs on its own 30-yard line. Van Ralte grabbed the ball on a fumble and chased 50 yards for Smith's first touchdown. Jarvis kicked the goal.

Shortly after the kick-off Jarvis of Manual got the ball on a blocked forward pass and went 30 yards for Manual's second touchdown. The goal was again missed. Smith followed the kick-off and smothered the ball on Manual's 20-yard line, from whence Strauss with four eight-yard spurts made the second score. Jarvis kicked the goal. The end of the third period found the ball on Smith's 30-yard line.

The boys returned to the battle in the final chapter somewhat affected by the warm football conditions. Smith was apparently weakening and Manual on a fake quarterback run scored on a drop kick by Hammerstein from the 20-yard line, having assumed the lead 14-14.

Manual set to work to make good their advantage and heavy charges through the weakening Smith line resulted in Polish going over for a touch down. The goal was again missed.

Smith received the kick off but could not advance the ball into the opposing territory. Smith was held to downs and Hammerstein went over for the fourth touch down after a 15-yard dash through the line. Smith tried all the tricks they knew in the last few minutes of play to overcome the comfortable lead held by Manual, but the aggressive black and gold boys held.

WILSON SEES MCCOMBS ABOUT 1914 CAMPAIGN

President's Other Thanksgiving Engagement Is With Sir Edward Grey's Secretary.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—As President Wilson intends to spend part of the day with friends and go to the Army-Navy football game Saturday, he had two engagements today at his office. He had a long walk with Chairman McCombs of the Democratic National Committee and in the afternoon had an engagement with Sir William Tyrrell, private secretary to Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary.

With Mr. McCombs the President discussed politics in general and preliminary work for the 1914 congressional campaign.

About Sir William's visit, White House officials made no comment. During his stay here, Sir William has seen President Wilson twice before and they have exchanged information on Mexico.

WHETHER REX CAN BE RETRIED HANGS ON THREE WORDS

Indictment Said "Extension" of Credit; Blank in Evidence Said "Obtain Credit."

HARVEY BEGINS INQUIRY

He Says Politician Can't Be Re-indicted if Testimony Alone Was at Fault.

Circuit Attorney Harvey has begun an inquiry into the case of William S. Rex, Democratic city committeeman from the Twenty-eighth Ward, and former president of the St. Louis Bank Fixture Co., whose acquittal on a charge of uttering a false financial statement was ordered by Judge Koerner in the Criminal Court Wednesday.

Harvey will review the evidence submitted to the grand jury and the proofs submitted at the trial with a view to determining whether it will be legally possible to submit the case to another grand jury and again indict Rex. A warm legal contest is expected if an attempt is made to bring the case into court again.

Issue Turns on Three Words.
Rex's attorneys, A. M. Frumberg and Brownrigg & Mason, will contend that Rex has been placed in jeopardy and that therefore he cannot again be tried for the same offense.

The issue will turn on two words in the Rex indictment and on one word in a line of small type at the bottom of the financial statement which he is alleged to have made to the American Trust Co. and which purported to show the financial condition of the St. Louis Bank Fixture Co.

In the indictment it was charged that Rex, by means of a false financial statement, attempted to obtain EXTENSION of credit for his company.

The financial statement was made on a blank furnished by the American Trust Co. On the bottom line of this blank, in small type, is printed:

"Statement made for the purpose of obtaining credit."

This statement, with the line of fine type at the bottom, was the principal documentary evidence submitted by the State. It was challenged promptly by the defense, on the ground that it did not prove the same allegation contained in the indictment.

"Extension" in Indictment.
Because the statement showed, on its face, that it was made to OBTAIN CREDIT and the indictment charged that the statement was made to obtain EXTENSION of credit a demurrer was filed. After hearing arguments in chambers for several hours, Judge Koerner sustained the demurrer and instructed the jury to acquit Rex.

The possibility that Rex may be indicted again, although a jury has passed on his case, arises from the fact that the demurrer was to the evidence and not to the form or validity of the indictment.

It is the contention of Rex's attorneys that, while the indictment was correct in legal form, the evidence submitted to prove it was at variance with the indictment.

They allege that, as the State presented all its evidence before a jury and that the defense consisted of a demurrer to that evidence, there was a full and legal trial of the case, which placed Rex in jeopardy, and that, therefore, he cannot be indicted again.

Can't Be Twice in Jeopardy.
If the demurrer had been on the indictment and the judge had found that the indictment was defective, he would have taken the case from the hands of the jury and it would have stood as "no trial." Lawyers interviewed by a Post-Dispatch reporter agreed that in such a case there would have been no obstacle to reindicting Rex and trying him again. They were divided in their opinions as to whether the trial which Wednesday resulted in acquittal was a legal trial.

Woman Who Fails to Appear When Her $10,000 Suit Is Up

an ordered verdict of acquittal had placed Rex in jeopardy. The law says a man cannot be tried twice for the same offense.

Circuit Attorney Harvey's view, at this stage of his inquiry, is that it is found that the indictment was not defective and that it was comprehensive enough to have covered the general accusation that a false financial statement had been made for purposes of gain, it then will be impossible to reindict Rex.

But if it is found that the indictment was drawn improperly to the extent that it would have been impossible to convict Rex had the case gone to the jury on its merits, then in Circuit Attorney Harvey's opinion, Rex has not been in jeopardy and can be tried again.

Year's Imprisonment Penalty.
The statute on which Rex's prosecution was based is an act passed by the Legislature in 1911. It provides a year's imprisonment, $1000 fine or both, for any person who shall make a false financial statement for the purpose of "procuring, in any form whatsoever, either the delivery of personal property, the payment of cash, the making of a loan or credit or the extension of credit."

It is the contention of Rex's attorneys that, while the indictment was correct in legal form, the evidence submitted to prove it was at variance with the indictment.

They allege that, as the State presented all its evidence before a jury and that the defense consisted of a demurrer to that evidence, there was a full and legal trial of the case, which placed Rex in jeopardy, and that, therefore, he cannot be indicted again.

C. H. Dodge and Sister Give Total of $625,000; John D. Rockefeller $500,000.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—There was joy today in all the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. rooms throughout the world. George W. Perkins and his associates in the extraordinary campaign to raise money for new buildings captured last night that golden Thanksgiving turkey which had been their object for 35 days, and enough silver spoons to make them glad they went after it.

The thousands of workers, men and women, assembled at 8 o'clock last night in the Hotel Manhattan. The reports soon revealed that the women had raised in a few hours exactly $18,750. Men and women made the hotel ring with their exclamations of rejoicing. In the midst of this someone began, "Praise God from Whom all blessings flow."

Although at 8 a. m. yesterday only $124,000 was needed to make the grand total of $4,000,000, the teams gathered exactly $18,750, making the official total

$4,062,501 for 35 days' work, one day more than originally planned. Cleveland H. Dodge and his sister, Miss Grace H. Dodge, gave $500,000 each, making their total contribution $1,000,000. Their nearest competitor for the place of honor was John D. Rockefeller, who gave $500,000. Mrs. H. McK. Twombly gave $50,000 more, which made her total contribution $100,000. Mrs. S. V. Harkness gave another $25,000. There were two anonymous gifts of $25,000 each. Mrs. Daniel G. Reid gave $20,000. Henry Clave $10,000. Mrs. W. L. Harkness $10,000. Mrs. Whitelaw Reid $10,000, and Artemus Ward $10,000.

LIFE-TERMER ON PAROLE

J. W. Rainey Leaves Leavenworth Prison.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Nov. 27.—Jasper W. Rainey, State prison lifer, who broke a silence of 20 years recently when on his banded knees he begged Samuel Seaton, Governor Hodges' pardon clerk, to secure him a parole, left the prison today. He will be free as long as he observes the parole regulations.

Rainey had served 20 years on the charge of murdering a woman with whom he quarreled at Paola, Kan. Rainey protested when he arrived here that he had been wronged and took a vow that his voice would be heard no more while he remained behind the prison walls.

FLETCHER ON HAND TO GUARD TAMPICO
GREAT OIL PLANTS

British Cruiser Also Arrives to Supplement the Fleet of Four American Ships.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.—While Rear Admiral Fletcher has obtained formal pledges from the Constitutionalist General Aguilar, that there shall be no interference with foreign property in the oil fields about Tampico, there is some concern as to whether that is broad enough to cover the rather critical situation at Tampico.

The Navy Department today received delayed dispatches reporting Fletcher's arrival at Tampico on his temporary flagship Rhode Island and also the arrival of the British cruiser Suffolk with Rear Admiral Crookall aboard. Nothing new was reported in the situation. The battleships Nebraska and Michigan and the gunboat Wedgwood already were at Tampico and their commanders had been instructed to look after not only American but British and other foreign interests in that vicinity. It is thought at the Navy Department that there is little danger of any action by the Constitutionalist in the neighborhood of Tampico that would threaten destruction of the great oil tanks at that port.

Although no specific instructions have been given to the American naval commanders, they are expected to act on their own discretion in protecting the property.

The real danger, if any existed, would lie in interference with the pipe lines running as far as 25 miles to the interior from Tampico. Naval officers estimate that it would require a small army to protect the wells and the pipe lines from interference. The lifting of one cap from one of the gushers and the ignition of the rushing streams of oil might carry widespread disaster down to the coast.

Rear Admiral Fletcher is expected first to undertake to get into communication with the insurgent leaders near Tampico and induce them to respect the pledges given by Gen. Aguilar to observe the rights of foreign property.

Regiment of Marines Ready to Sail From Philadelphia.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 27.—A detachment of United States marines from the barracks at Annapolis joined other detachments from Norfolk and Washington, here this morning and proceeded in a special train for Philadelphia. It is understood the troops are to form part of the regiment which is to sail on the transport Prairie from the Philadelphia Navy Yard today.

Inquiry at the marine barracks at Annapolis as to whether the movement of the troops from there was in response to a hurry order elicited the reply that word to have them in readiness had come from Washington two or three days ago. The fact that Pennsylvania is an "ostensible" destination was also gleaned at the local station.

GRANDSON OF GEN. GRANT
WINS ARMY COMMISSION

Resigns as Brooklyn Museum Curator to Join Fourteenth Cavalry Near Mexican Frontier.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Chapman Grant, son of Jesse R. Grant and grandson of the late President U. S. Grant, has resigned as assistant curator of the Children's Museum of the Brooklyn Institute and joined the regular army. He has been ordered to report for duty as a Second Lieutenant in the Fourteenth United States Cavalry on Dec. 10. The Fourteenth is now in Texas near the Mexican frontier.

The commission of Second Lieutenant was won by young Grant in a competitive examination last July.

"If there is a war I want to be in it," he said. "This business of becoming a soldier might be called a family matter with me."

Young Grant's father created a sensation last July by filing suit for divorce against his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Chapman Grant. He alleged desertion, and filed suit on the day his elder brother, Ulysses S. Grant Jr., sailed for Australia with his young bride, who was Mrs. A. R. Will, after a stormy time at San Francisco, owing to strong opposition to his marriage by his children.

Mrs. Jesse Grant, who had been living in San Francisco for several years, did not know her husband planned divorce proceedings until they were filed.

PARLIAMENT ON IN ITALY

Brilliant Ceremony Attends Opening by the King.

ROME, Nov. 27.—Brilliant ceremony today attended the opening of the Italian Parliament by King Victor Emmanuel. The King, accompanied by Queen Elena and the Royal Prince, drove in state carriages from the Quirinal through the streets lined by immense throngs to the Senate House.

When he entered the Parliamentary Building the assembled Deputies and Senators rose and cheered him. The King, surrounded by the members of the Cabinet, at once proceeded with the reading of the speech from the throne.

POLICE KILL FIVE STRIKERS

East Indians Slain Near American Mission in Africa.

DURBAN, Natal, Union of South Africa, Nov. 27.—Five East Indians were killed today in an affray between the strikers and the police on the Black-burn sugar estate in the Mount Edgecombe district, about 24 miles north of Durban. The most important cause of the strike is a large American mission station.

The police had to fire several volleys before they quelled the rioters.

DOCTOR GOES ON TRIAL TOMORROW AS KNABE SLAYER

Women of Indiana Supplied Evidence on Which William B. Craig Is Accused.

By Associated Press.
SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Nov. 27.—Dr. William B. Craig, dean of the Indiana Veterinary College at Indianapolis, will be placed on trial before Judge Alonzo Blair here tomorrow to answer to an indictment charging him with the murder of Dr. Helene Knabe, at Indianapolis the night of Oct. 23, 1911. Dr. Craig was indicted as Indianapolis Dec. 31, 1912, on evidence submitted by a private detective employed by the women of the State. The case was brought here on a change of venue, granted at the request of the defendant.

At the time Craig was indicted the grand jury also returned a bill against Alonzo M. Ragdale, an undertaker and administrator of the Knabe estate, charging him with being an accessory after the fact to the murder. The date for his trial has not been fixed.

Dr. Craig had been very friendly with Dr. Knabe. The detective has admitted that the evidence against the veterinarian is circumstantial.

The murder of Dr. Knabe has been one of the most puzzling in the criminal history of the State. She was found dead in her bed with a deep gash in her throat. Her office girl, Miss Katherine McPherson, found the body when she went to Dr. Knabe's apartment the morning of Oct. 24, 1911. The police, after a long investigation, declared Dr. Knabe had killed herself. The Marion County Coroner reported that Dr. Knabe was murdered.

Two grand juries investigated the case without returning any indictments. Then the women of the State raised a fund and hired a private detective to investigate the murder and the indictments were returned by the third grand jury on testimony submitted by him. He has been the principal witness for the State at the trial here.

Craig and Ragdale have been at liberty on bond since their indictment. The most prominent criminal lawyers in the State are engaged in the case, either by the defense or by the prosecution.

At the time Craig was indicted the grand jury also returned a bill against Alonzo M. Ragdale, an undertaker and

MAN, 71, WITH ONE FIRM 27 YEARS, GIVES HIS THANKS

F. W. Dustmann Writes to Post-Dispatch in Praise of Hafner Manufacturing Co.

A good job with a good employer seemed to Frederick W. Dustmann of 1215 Sullivan avenue to be the best occasion for Thanksgiving. So Dustmann, who is 71 years old and who has been employed by the Hafner Manufacturing Co., Main and Dock streets, since 1886, wrote this letter to the Post-Dispatch:

This being an appropriate day to express myself towards the feeling I have to the Hafner Manufacturing Co. I have been employed with them for the past 27 years, and am now 71 years old. There is no one that knows better how they treat me than the men that work with me. I have with me a week's vacation, thanks to the Hafner Manufacturing Co. and all the employees, and most especially the superintendent, J. H. Kruckmeyer.

Dustmann, his fellow workmen told a reporter who went to the plant, is an artist in door finishing and store making, a work which in his earlier years in the craft, was done entirely by hand. He has worked the 27 years with only two interruptions—one caused by an attack of rheumatism lasting a month, the other by a week's visit to Memphis, his former home.

"Dreaded Giving Up Work. In recent years he has found that he could not perform so much work as had been his wont. He did not fear retirement for financial reasons, for he has a comfortable home and has saved a competence. But he dreaded the thought of giving up the daily task, which was to him the most pleasant occupation imaginable.

So, it is related at the factory, Dustmann went into the office of Harry F. Hafner, president of the company, recently. Hafner was a boy in short trousers when Dustmann entered the firm's employment.

"Henry," said the old employee, "you often have always been a bargain to me, and I'd rather keep on working here than to work anywhere else or stay at home. Now, I can't do as much work as I used to—I realize that. But I would like to just work on here until I die, and I was thinking that I would like to make a bargain with you, to sort of sell you the rest of my life for whatever you think it's worth."

"You can't do that, Bill," said Hafner, using the familiar name by which the old employee is known around the plant. "You've hired for the rest of your life, and have been for a long time, and you will draw full pay here just as long as you want to stay."

Dustmann, whose wife died five years ago, has four daughters and two sons, and the two unmarried daughters and one son, Patrolman F. W. Dustmann Jr., live at the Sullivan avenue house with him.

New Victor and Victrola Records of the Great Stars. Beginning Friday the new Victor records will be placed on sale and famous vocal and instrumental musicians may be heard day after day from then on at the Aeolian Co.'s store, 1004 Olive street. Of all the records issued in the new catalogue for Victrola and Victrolas Miss Melba, Jan Kubelik and Schumann-Heink stand out possibly as stars of stars. Miss Melba and Kubelik are still on the concert tour that began in October and which will not be ended until April. For the many persons who did not attend these concerts, as well as those who did, the new records will be a joy. Melba's "Comin' Thro' the Rye" is rendered as exquisitely, artless, delicate, as any solo she has ever sung. Kubelik, too, is heard at his best. In fact, all the great artists are registered on the new records as they never have been before.

Marjorie Crossman portrays the role of the Reverend Penfield, a lady, strictly in the main, varied by occasional outbursts of "vigilantism" which the story's action demands. Frank Gilmore makes a magnificent double figure of the Rev. Penfield.

BUSINESS HOUSES CLOSE; FEASTS AT CITY INSTITUTIONS

City Hall, Banks, Courts and Many of the Stores Do Not Open Thanksgiving Day.

TURKEY AT HOSPITALS

Prisoners Also Get Bountiful Spread; Wellston Pupils Make Up Dinner Baskets.

The city hall, banks, courts and Federal offices were closed Thursday on the Thanksgiving holiday. Most business houses were closed all day while others closed at noon. One delivery of mail was made by mail carriers, and the postoffice closed at noon.

Special Thanksgiving dinners were served to the inmates and prisoners in city institutions. The menu included turkey, chicken, cranberries, mince and pumpkin pies, and celery.

Supply Commissioner Thomas purchased 4000 pounds of turkey, 600 pounds of chicken, 8 barrels of cranberries, and 400 pounds of mince for these feasts at the expense of the city.

The allotment of turkeys to the institutions was: City Sanitarium 1500 pounds; City Hospital, 1055 pounds; Infirmary, 870 pounds; Robert Koch Hospital, 150 pounds; Workhouse, 90 pounds of turkey and 500 pounds of chicken; Jail, 275 pounds; Industrial School, 250 pounds.

Entertainments and special religious services were held in most of the institutions, and the visiting houses were extended.

The public school children of Wellston took to school Wednesday baskets filled with apples, potatoes, homemade preserves, peaches, corn, tomatoes, sugar and coffee. With the aid of their teachers they made up to baskets of Thanksgiving supplies, which they later distributed to the needy families of Wellston.

LONG AUTO TRIPS AL

Plaintiff Says Husband Wrong-Doing—She D $50,000 Damages

Leased Wife From the

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Miss A. McGill, who inherited a $700,000 from her father, the late John D. McGill, and is one of the most prominent women socially in New York, was sued yesterday for $50,000 damages by her husband, Mr. Charles McGill.

McGill has alienated the love of her husband, who is employed by Miss McGill as chauffeur. At her home, 10 avenue, Jersey City, last evening McGill refused to comment on the case.

For all information you may desire, contact the former Supreme Court Justice, Mr. Charles McGill, who is now in New York City.

Collins also refused to make a statement. He said the statement was continued in Miss McGill's column, which is not filed.

In her complaint Mrs. McGill says her husband entered into a contract with her for the use of his car early in 1912. She says she began alterations to the car in April, 1912, and that since that time she has made long auto trips, together going to Massachusetts, Hampshire and other states.

According to the complaint, Mrs. McGill says her husband used his car in New York City, and that she was unable to use it.

Husband Pays Her $4000. The wife began suit against her husband for non-support, and for the use of his car. The case was heard by the Court several times, and she was ordered to pay him $4 a week for the use of the car and for her expenses.

At his death Dr. McGill left a fortune of three-fifths of a million dollars. His daughter, Mrs. McGill, was the only child of Dr. McGill. Dr. McGill was a member of the State of New Jersey, and was the former Governor of New Jersey.
